

6516206144.txt

Please take a hard look at having local stations IMPROVE their service to compete as opposed to spending money to force XM Radio to fall back onto old methods of providing information.
Business is about survival through fitness and XM Radio has done it's homework to provide a service and should be allowed to do so.